I am enclosing a copy of the claims with the changes for each of the claims under consideration.

It would be easier to review and check the claims if you cancel all of the claims that are active and add new claims starting with (NEW) Claim 73-with the language of the broadest claim 22 as indicated on pages 3-4. If you have any questions please contact me prior to submitting the official amendment by faxing me at (UNOFFICIAL FAX PAPERS) 703—7846-5121.

An official fax will be submitted to 703-872-9306 for scanning into the application.

Upon receipt of the official fax in accordance with the amended claims as noted, I will consider the claims favorable for allowance. In addition, you will have the right to file divisionals, continuations or continuations-in-part to the non-elected cancelled claims. Also, I may consider 312 amendments after allowance of the instant application, which amendments would be in accordance with the guidelines of the M.P.E.P.

This action will be part of the Interview of October 22, 2003, which I indicated that I would try to indicate possible allowable claimed language for the claims under consideration. You are not required to follow any of the above-suggested amendments.
